Self-Esteem and the End of the World

LUKE HEALY

Life is not a race. There are no winners and losers.
Immeasurable people are doing better than you... immeasurably worse. You are statistically average.

For over ten years, fictional Luke Healy has invested all of his self-esteem into his career. But two years post publication of his latest book, and suffering the blow of his twin-brother not finding him fit to act as best man, both Luke's career and self-esteem seem to have disintegrated.

Set against the backdrop of a dangerously changing global climate, with melting ice-caps and flooding cities, Self-Esteem and the End of the World spans two decades of tragicomic self-discovery. From discussing self-help books like Marie Kondo's with the guy you invited over for sex, to summiting a Greek mountaintop while pretending to be working remotely, and a workplace destination murder mystery to a Hollywood revival of Luke's early work, we see our protagonist grappling with his identity as the world crumbles.

Quietly funny, smartly introspective, and grounded in deeply-felt familial highs and lows, Self-Esteem and the End of the World ponders what happens when the person you are isn't who you need to be, who you are when nobody's watching, and ultimately, who can you possibly be at the end of the world?

A Witch's Guide to Burning

AMINDER DHALI WAL

Dhaliwal creates a land ruled by magic and fire, where the sky is thick with witches

A witch's work is never done when she works for the people. With the success of her town relying on her magic, demands are high. But what happens when a witch can't keep up with the magical requests? She is burnt, of course—in a cruel ritual that extinguishes her magic and erases all her memories, making her just like everybody else. But when a burning ceremony is interrupted by rain in Chamomile Valley, a witch is left writhing at the stake. It's up to a witch doctor and her toad friend to save the singed witch and nurse her back to health. Can they help her before her magic is lost forever?

A Witch's Guide to Burning is a whimsical and humorous allegory for burnout in a society in desperate need of self-care. With a lavish blend of prose, illustration, and comics, Dhaliwal crafts an enthralling hybrid adventure story like you've never seen before. Follow Singe and her companions Yew-Veda and Bufo Wonder as they journey across dangerous landscapes, battling demons along the way in an extraordinary tale about sacrifice and healing.

Singe's eyes shot open.

The voice belonged to a short witch jogging through the field. She headed straight toward the stake and leaned her backpack against it, on top of which was strewn, curiously, a dead toad. "Stakes are signs of trouble most of the time... But this one is kinda nice!"

"But who cares about excuses?" She knelt down beside Singe.

"I should have started with aloe!"

"Hello." Singe responded.

"No, ALOE, for the burns." The witch doctor said, producing a thick aloe vera plant from one of her pockets. "But also, hello!" She cut into the plant with a pocket knife.

"You mentioned a village nearby?" Singe asked, "I'm sure they can help."

"This is stronger than it looks," said the witch doctor as her knife sliced through the gel like butter. When Singe didn't respond, the doctor added, "And... it's enchanted!"

"Besides, you don't want to go to that village." Her tone changed as she prepped the paste. "They probably burned you."

"No." Singe reassured her, "You're only burned for practicing the cursed arts." The sentiment rose from some hopeful place within her.

"That's a lie, but it's good that you remember something from before the stake. The Smoke Witch warned me the fire might've burnt all your memories."

"The fire burnt my memories?" Singe asked.

"Fire burns magic. And since you had memories of your magic, it burned those away too. The pain you felt last night was your magic extinguishing."

She tipped the contents of the mortar onto Singe's arms and a cool sensation ran up her fingertips.

"I take it from your smile that it's working? See, I told you, aloe is stronger than you think. And you are stronger than that village thinks."

She held up Singe's soot-covered arms, "These are the ashes of dead magic. If the fire had kept burning, it would have burned away all your magic."

She set down the mortar and pestle.

"Now it's my job to heal you up."

Singe stared at her hands. Under the soot were hundreds of fine red scars crawling up her arms. As she began to wonder how far up they went, she caught her reflection in the doctor's knife. Burn holes and ash covered her dress, but her face was mostly spared, save her hair. The worst of the scars were on her hands.

"You were lucky, the strong wind and rainfall saved you from the fire yesterday." The witch doctor said as she put away the aloe and knife. Then she straightened up and held out a hand.

"I'm Yew-Veda, I'll help you get back on your feet."

Singe took Yew-Veda's hand and began to stand up, "My name is –AAAH!" She fell to the ground, her gloopy hand having slipped out of Yew's grasp.

"Whoops," said Yew-Veda, hand still extended, "I should have said it takes the aloe ten minutes to dry. Um, you were saying...?"

"My name is Singe..."

Yew nodded, then wiped her hand on her backpack and hefted it on. The "dead" toad on top yawned and sat up in a very-much-alive way.

"And I'm Bufo Wonder, pleasure to meet you."

Singe fainted.

Luckily
she was on the ground already.

WE LIVED IN A TRAILER THEN,
AND ANY PICTURES WE HAD UP WERE TAPED TO THE WALLS.
SOMETIMES THEY FELL.
BUT THIS IS NOT WHAT I MEAN
WHEN I SAY THEY COULD MOVE.

I BELIEVED there WAS another WORLD that WOULD SHOW itself TO ME in the SMALLEST ways. THE gray KITTEN in THE picture BY my bed WOULD ACCIDENTALLY BLINK HIS EYES. The GIRL in THE PICTURE would breathe. I BELIEVED

THERE WAS another WORLD- BUT I ONLY noticed it when IT BECAME harder to get TO. There HAD BEEN A TIME when a TOY ELEPHANT was AS ALIVE AS a REAL rabbit IN THE GRASS. I DIDN'T KNOW there WERE different KINDS OF ALIVENESS, AND two worlds CONTAINED by EACH other.

SOMETHING CAN ONLY
become AN illusion
after disillusionment.

BEFORE THAT, it IS SOMETHING REAL.
WHAT CAUSED the disillusionment?

NO ONE TOLD ME THE PRINT ON the WALL was JUST ink AND PAPER and HAD NO
LIFE OF ITS OWN. at some point The cat stopped blinking, and I STOPPED THINKING
it could.

But MY MEMORY OF the BLINKING CAT is STILL vivid NEARLY fifty years later.

WHY?

WHY WOULD an IMAGE OF SOMETHING, WHICH
never happened,
TRAVEL WITH ME for all these YEARS?

THE STORY OF TRANSPORTATION

What Is An Image?

AT THE CENTER OF EVERYTHING WE CALL 'THE ARTS,' AND CHILDREN CALL 'PLAY,' IS SOMETHING WHICH SEEMS SOMEHOW ALIVE.

It's NOT ALIVE IN THE WAY YOU AND I ARE ALIVE, BUT IT'S CERTAINLY NOT DEAD.

IT'S ALIVE IN THE WAY OUR MEMORY IS ALIVE.

ALIVE IN THE WAY THE OCEAN IS ALIVE AND ABLE TO TRANSPORT US AND CONTAIN US.

ALIVE IN THE WAY THINKING IS NOT, BUT EXPERIENCING IS, MADE OF BOTH MEMORY AND IMAGINATION, THIS IS THE THING WE MEAN BY 'AN IMAGE'

The Blood Brothers Mother #1

BY BRIAN AZZARELLO AND EDUARDO RISSO

NEW SERIES DEBUT FROM THE TEAM BEHIND 100 BULLETS!

In the old West, three children set off across the wild Texas frontier to rescue their mother—kidnapped by ruthless outlaws who gunned down their preacher father. Throughout their journey, they'll face the harsh elements of an unforgiving landscape, deadly animals hungry for blood, merciless bounty hunters and so much more...all in a relentless quest to rescue their family.

They'll learn the terrible cost of revenge—not just in lives, but in how it stains a soul. While revenge may be satisfying in the moment, it leaves a yearning behind that lasts a lifetime. And once you taste it, nothing else is ever so sweet.

In the tradition of The Searchers and Blood Meridian comes a brutal new western series from the Eisner award-winning team behind 100 BULLETS and MOONSHINE!

The most anticipated graphic novel of 2024, concluding the story of young Karen Reyes, the most inspiring "monster" in contemporary fiction.

MY FAVORITE THING IS MONSTERS BOOK TWO

By Emil Ferris

ISBN 978-1-68396-927-3

$44.99 / SC / 412 pgs / FC / 8.1" x 10.5"

Set against the tumultuous political backdrop of late '60s Chicago, My Favorite Thing Is Monsters Book Two is the eagerly awaited conclusion to one of the most acclaimed graphic novels of the past decade. In Book Two, dark mysteries past and present continue to abound. Young Karen attends the Festival of Life in Grant Park and finds herself swept up in a police stomp. Privately, she continues to investigate her neighbor's recent death. She wrestles with her own sexual identity, the death of her mother, and the secrets she suspects her brother of hiding. Ferris's cast of characters experience revelations and epiphanies that both resolve and deepen the mysteries visited upon them earlier. Visually, the story is told in Ferris's inimitable style that seamlessly combines panel-to-panel storytelling and cartoon montages filled with B-movie horror and pulp monster mag iconography.

Future Marvel stars Bill Everett (seven issues) and Werner Roth (three issues) take Venus to heights of four-color weirdness and pre-Code horror ghoustliness.

This is a compendium of comics and drawings from the first 75 issues of his minicomics series, The Shell of the Self of the Senses, and is the first time any of this work has been collected, with newly added color: Shell Collection brilliantly showcases Regé's poetic voice, his deeply humane worldview, and his sui generis visual vocabulary — all of which has made him one of the most distinctive stylists in comics.

FOR SOME PEOPLE, IT'S ALWAYS MIDNIGHT . . .
 From the minds of neo-noir icon Barry Gifford (Lost Highway), acclaimed writer Chris Condon (That Texas Blood), and Eisner Award-winning artist Alexandre Tefenkgi (The Good Asian) comes a stiletto-sharp tale of desperation, fanaticism, and murder in the American South . . .

On an otherwise quiet street in New Orleans, the battle over abortion is fought between brother and sister evangelical preachers in an ever-escalating rivalry between their neighboring ministries: the Church on the One Hand and the Church on the Other Hand. As the long-secret origin of Brother Dallas Salt and Sister Dilys Salt's rift threatens to erupt into scandal, a fanatical female assassin quietly plans to settle their differences once and for all with a furious display of violence aimed right at the heart of a national debate that couldn't be any more personal.

The countdown to the most ambitious Rick and Morty event ever attempted continues with the next extra-sized special chronicling . . . the worst week of Morty's young life (and it's only Tuesday, ouch).

It's the second day of Finals Week, and Morty only took this Gender Studies course to meet girls, but thanks to Rick he's missed 90 percent of classes and has no idea how he's going to pass his test. Time to study—until the whole family suddenly gets transported into the side-scrolling, beat 'em up video game Hunks From Hell! But with Rick, Morty, and Jerry trapped helplessly in a castle, it's up to Beth and Summer to kick, punch, and energy blast their way out.
