When Doctor Strange's first solo series ended, there was little doubt the Master of the Mystic Arts would soon return. That moment arrived in MARVEL PREMIERE, where hot new art talents illustrated tales tinged with Lovecraftian horror. Writer Steve Englehart and artist Frank Brunner then brought Doctor Strange to new heights of cosmic consciousness and other-dimensional adventure. Brunner's art mixed a deliriously lush line with psychedelic stylings, while Englehart's scripting plumbed the depths of Strange's soul. The series goes from strength to strength when artist Gene Colan returns, and the entity Eternity declares that the end-times are here. Next comes a Doc Strange-vs.-Dracula crossover and a time-traveling Occult History of America. Collecting MARVEL PREMIERE #3-14, DOCTOR STRANGE (1974) #1-22 and ANNUAL (1976) #1 and TOMB OF DRACULA (1972) #44.

Matt Fraction and Salvador Larroca continue to restore the gleam to Iron Man!

He's outrun Norman Osborn and kept the database of superhuman secret identities safe and secure. But in doing so, Tony Stark has lost just about everything: his armor, his power – even his very mind. Now at his absolute lowest point, it will take Tony's last reservoir of will – and allies including Thor, Captain America, War Machine and Black Widow – to keep him from losing it all! But there's a competitor on the scene for Stark Resilient, Tony's new company – a mother/daughter team with a familiar name and their own armor called Detroit Steel! They've started a deadly game of international intrigue that will bring one of Iron Man's deadliest foes back into the fray, and Tony Stark will find out just what "resilient" really means!
